Bee Aware of Your Native Bees

A Community Based Project

Beecome more familiar with the insects in your local community garden.

Bee proactive and learn hands-on Bee ID techniques.

Beecome active Citizen Scientists and have fun.

Learn how to capture, chill, photograph and identify native bees.
No insects will bee harmed during this teaching session.

Native Bee Hands-on ID

Where: Blue Mountains Organic Community Garden, Harold Hodgson Park, 10 Victoria Street, Katoomba

When: 10am on Friday, 7th of November, 2014

What to bring (if you have them): Camera, wide mouthed, clear 'jam' jar, insect net and magnifying glass (yes some people do have these things)

No need to RSVP, just come along

University of Western Sydney | NSW Government | NSW Environmental Trust